Thomas Cook®

A CENTURY OF QUALITY CRAFTSMANSHIP

SINCE 1924

Thomas Cook Snr was born in 1908 in Geraldton, Western Australia, to Bessie and Charles James Cook. He was just four years old when his mother passed away suddenly from a heart attack, leaving Charles to care for Thomas and eight other children on his own.

After being unable to support the family, four-year-old Thomas and three of his youngest siblings were placed into the care of the Salvation Army. Thomas spent much of his childhood growing up in the Collie Boys Home before finding work on a local dairy farm in his early teenage years.

Thomas later described this as his first happy years. He was expected to work hard but was able to play football on the weekends. He also spent time working on a new passion of his, boxing. After winning a major tournament in Bridgetown, WA, Thomas was told by a friend to try his luck at boxing in Melbourne, where he would soon relocate to.

Thomas arrived in Melbourne and got a job at the Joyce & Howe Boot Factory. Still competing regularly in the sport he'd become quite successful in, he remained undefeated for close to twenty fights before being knocked out. It didn't take long after this for Thomas to reconsider his career choice and after a few more successful fights, he hung up his gloves in pursuit of a profession in boot making.

Fast forward 100 years, we carry on the legacy that Thomas Cook Senior started. More than just a name on the line, Thomas Cook Boot & Clothing Co stands for a century of hard work, of miles travelled, of relationships built, friendships forged and family. It stands for a promise of quality, innovation, comfort and heritage.

This Autumn/Winter, we have the whole family covered. A design and garment to suit everybody. We hope you enjoy this range as much as we enjoyed designing it. Thank you from our family to yours. We could not have reached this milestone without your loyal support throughout the years.
